Men Who Paved the Way — Rumored Sale — Moving Back to the City — The Bridge Club Luncheon — Housewarming.

Rev. C. S. Bullock returned to town on Wednesday evening from a two weeks stay in Yonkers where he has been engaged in evangelistic work. Next week, Rev. Bullock will deliver in the Bronx district, New York, one of the lectures which is being given to the pupils of the public schools under the auspices of the board of Education. He theme will be "Men who have paved the way." Among other things he will discuss the development of the submarine from the days of David Bushnell, 100 years ago, down to the perfected boat of the present day. Another topic will be automobiles from their inception in 1804 down to recent productions. John Fitch is another one of the men who paved the way, being in the estimation of many the inventor of the steamboat and his work will be contrasted with the gigantic steamships which ply between New York, English and German ports, as well as the great steamboats on the Hudson, equipped with the latest device for detecting fires—the Dilcock fire extinguisher. Locomotives from the days of Hero to the latest 20th century limited will be another topic. Possibly the beginnings of the telegraph may be touched upon down to Bimms sitting at his wireless instrument on the Republic.

A young man from this town, Mr. Clarence Booth, will enlist in the regular army for three years. He is a strenuous young fellow, who for some time last summer was an assistant on an ice cart.

There was a rumor in town yesterday that the Curtis house, on the corner of Main street and East Broadway, had been sold, but the name of the purchaser has not been made public. The property has long been in the market, and there have been frequent rumors of the same import before. The family of Mr. Smith, which lives in the western half of the house, is moving into the Stagg house on Harris street. Mrs. Ella Hines is in New York for a month.

As the heater for the Neighborhood church is out of repair, it is possible services will have to be held in the Town hall next Sunday. The sermon in the evening will consider one of the famous men whose 100th birthday is being observed this year, Charles Darwin will be the man to be preached about.

A family by the name of Bullard, from Bridgeport, has rented one of the Beach houses on E. M. street.

Mr. Sigman, who boards at Mr. Henry Thompson's, well known as the head contractor for the new Howland building in Bridgeport, is reported to be quite ill.

Mr. Hawley of Bennett & Sloan, New York, was in town yesterday, soliciting orders for cigars and groceries. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas of Bridgeport have taken a house on Sutton avenue.

Mr. Charles Seitsinger has gone to Florida.

It is said little was done Wednesday evening when the joint committees and the Selectmen met in the town clerk's office to talk over fire department matters, beyond making suggestions. Possibly the gentlemen wish to wait and learn what action the town will take at the meeting which has been called for early next month.

The flower of the town as well as the intellectual class, will be at the library this evening to hear Prof. Weir talk about Rome and Michael Angelo.

Among the ladies of the Bridge Club who will attend the luncheon to be given at the Stratfield next Wednesday are Mrs. William B. Bristol, Mrs. Charles Judson, Mrs. Frank L. Curtis, Mrs. Frank L. Hanson, Mrs. Frank Patterson and Mrs. David L. Rhoades. The last two ladies give the luncheon. It is announced that the proposed contest of the will of the late Mrs. Sally Sanford has been given up. Probably an amicable settlement has been made with the name who proposed to make the contest.

There will be a Lincoln memorial service at the Congregational church on the 14th of next month.

The Lonsbury family has returned to Bridgeport, after living for while on Elm street.

The next Monday evening Embroidery club will meet with Miss Mabel Merrick.

Mr. Samuel Patterson has become the agent for a fertilizer.

Tomorrow Mr. Louis Fort will have a housewarming at Devon.

The house has all the modern improvements and there will be music and something to eat.

Louis E. Pratt hopes to become Great Junior Sagamore. He is already a Chief Haymaker.
